MERCHANT STREET,

The Pacific Mail steamship Siberia, Captain Zeeder, arrived off port before 7 a clock vesterday morning and was quickly boarded by the quarantine officer, who passed the vessel without delay. The customs launch, conveying members of the entertainment committee, with Collector of Customs Stackable also aboard, was a little late owing to a wait for Governor Frear, who, however, went out in the tug Intrepid.

The Siberia had a pleasant voyage down bringing eighty passengers for Honolulu, and eight through passengers will lay over for a future steamer, Among the local passengers were Paul Isenberg, returning from a business trip to the Coast; Mr. and Mrs. M. Brasch, who, after spending a short time in the Eastern states, also visited several European countries; Clement Smith, son of George W. Smith, wife and child; Jonathan Shaw, the well-known business agent, who made a hurried round trip to San Francisco; George N. Wilcox, the Kanai planter; Theodore Cooks, son of the late C. M. Cooke, who was apprised of his father's death by George P. Cooke, who went out in the doctor's launch to carry the painful news; Dudley Harvey-Elder and Miss Harvey-Elder, brother and sister of C. Harvey-Elder of the Advertiser staff. Among the through passengers were General R. G. Broadhead, commander of all the British forces in Hongkong, accompanied by his aide, Captain Heathcote; Pablo Ocampo, delegate to Congress from the Philippines, accompanied by his secretary, A. G. Escamilla, a newspaper man connected with one of the leading Filipino newspapers in Manila; Lieut. O. F. Cooper, U. S. N., who was here with the fleet last year; Major McKinstry, U. S. A., well known on the Panific Coast, who is en route to Manila for station. Alvin Seale the eminent entomologist of the Federal service en route to Hanila; W. E. Peck, a wealthy New Yorker, accompanied by his wife and daughter, making a tour of the world. The Siberia left for Yokohama at 5 p. m. yesterday.

Congressmen Thank Officers.

After dinner on Sunday evening aboard the S. S. Siberia Mr. Bartholdt, of St. Louis, as the spokesman of the Congressional party, expressed to Captain Zeeder and his associate officers. the appreciation they all felt for cour- 5 p. m. tesies received at their hands during the trip from San Francisco to Honolulu, and the party wished for the cap-

The boat is expected to make her first trip to Honolulu about February

Notice to Mariners.

Stn Francisco, August 19, 1909. Notice is hereby given that, about September 20, 1909, the regular characteristic of the first-order light at Piedras Blancas, California (fixed white varied by a white flash every fifteen seconds), will be restored, the repairs to the revolving mechanism having been completed.

Shipping Notes.

Captain Lorenzen brought in the big steamer Siberia yesterday without a hitch. This is the second one he has docked since his recent sickness, his first being the anchorless Nordsee.

Captain George W. Goodwin, former-ly master of the big ship Dirigo, writes from Calais, Maine, under date of August 16: "Many alohas to all my Honolulu friends. I am having a nice time on the lakes and among the pines of this dear old State."
